Psalm 11
1 I find my refuge in the LORD;
   How is it then you say to me,
   “Make your escape and like a bird
   For refuge to your mountain flee.”
2 For look, the wicked bend their bows,
   And on the string they set their dart;
   From shadows dark they aim and shoot
   At those who are upright in heart.
3 “If the foundations are destroyed
   And all around there is decay,
   Whatever can the righteous do,
   Surrounded by such disarray?”
4 The LORD is in his holy place;
The LORD is on his heavenly throne.
His eyes observe the human race,
And in his sight each one is known.
5 The LORD examines all the just,
The righteous ones he proves and tests;
But all those who love wickedness
   And violence his soul detests.
6 Upon the wicked he will rain
   His fiery coals and sulphur hot;
   A scorching wind will beat on them—
   Such punishment will be their lot.
7 For God the LORD is righteous still,
   In righteousness he takes delight;
   And they alone will see his face
   Who are in heart and life upright.
